

Bibliographic scatch: Kathrin Eller, M.D.

Born 2.4.1978 in Vienna, Austria

Married to Philipp Eller since 2009, 2 Kids (Leo, born 2013; Pia, born 2016)

ORCID: 0000-0002-6214-5008

Homepage: <https://forschung.medunigraz.at>

Qualification:

1996 - 2002	Medical School; University Vienna
2002 – 2005	Research Fellow, Department of Internal Medicine IV (Nephrology and Hypertension), Innsbruck Medical University
2005 – 2011	Training Internal Medicine; Department of Internal Medicine IV (Nephrology and Hypertension), Innsbruck Medical University
2011	Postdoctoral Lecturing Qualification Internal Medicine
2011 – 2016	Assistant Professor at the Medical University of Graz, Clinical Division of Nephrology
2012	EMBO Fellowship University Birmingham, UK
2013	Qualification Subspecialty Nephrology
2012 – 2013	Certificate in Clinical Management
2016 – 2023	Associate Professor at the Medical University of Graz, Clinical Division of Nephrology
2017 – ongoing	Deputy Director of the Division of Nephrology, Medical University of Graz
2020 – ongoing	Vice-Dean for Doctoral Studies of the Medical University of Graz
2020 – ongoing	Member of the FWF-Kuratorium
2023-ongoing	Professor for Translational Nephrology at the Medical University of Graz

Scientific Expertise and potential:

Author of more than 110 peer reviewed papers with a Journal impact factor of 556 from original articles with more than 3300 citations, h-index of 25 since 2018. The major research focus is a translational scientific approach in the field of immunologically driven kidney diseases such as glomerulonephritis, diabetes and transplantation. Reviewer for journals in the field of Nephrology (Journal of the American Society of Nephrology, Kidney International, Nephrology Dialysis and Transplantation etc.) and others (The Lancet, Diabetes, Critical Care Medicine, etc.). Editorial board member (Basic Science) for Nephrology, Dialysis and Transplantation (NDT), Academic Editor for PLOS One and Frontiers in Immunology. Reviewer for Austrian, Swiss, French and UK government grant agencies. Awards from the Austrian Society of Nephrology (2005, 2006, 2010, 2013, 2020 to Ida Aringer – PhD student, 2021), Austrotransplant (2007, 2018 to Katharina Artinger - Postdoc), German Society of Nephrology (2007), Austrian Society of Allergology and Immunology (2010), Medical University of Graz (Best Researcher 2013) and 2nd best Habilitation in Medicine (Otto-Kraupp-Preis 2012). Hans-U.-Zollinger Award of the German Society of Nephrology (2021).

International cooperation

International cooperations with leading experts in the field of Nephrology, Diabetes, Transplantation and Immunology (Dan Drucker, Toronto; Katalin Susztak, Philadelphia; Antal Rot, London; Peter J. Lane, Birmingham; Ulf Panzer, Hamburg; Hans-Joachim Anders, München; Miriam Banas, Regensburg; Robert Ekhart, Maribor; etc)

Main research grants:

2022-ongoing: Head of the Flagship Vasc-Health of the Medical University of Graz
2021-ongoing: Cooperation partner of the EU-Horizon-2020 project "TTV GUIDE TX"
2016-2023: Member of the PhD program DK-MOLIN faculty. The faculty consists of 10 principal investigators and 6 associate researchers (<https://www.medunigraz.at/DK-MOLIN>).
2017-2020: Grant Jubiläumsfonds – ÖNB (Regulatory Immune Cell Subtypes as New Biomarkers in Renal Transplant Recipients – a Pilot Study)
2015-2018: Co-Investigator of the FWF-grant "Entwicklungsgrundlage der Mediakalzifikation" (P 27537)
2010-2013: Co-Investigator of the FWF-grant "Regulatory T cells in kidney diseases" (P21402)
2008-2010: Medizinischer Forschungsfonds Innsbruck
Industry driven Grants from Chiesi, Immundiagnostik, Amgen, and others.

Functions in national boards:

2022-ongoing: Member of ERAC
2022-ongoing: Vice-chair of the ETKAC (Kidney allocation consortium of Eurotransplant)
2009-ongoing: member of the board of the Austrian Society of Nephrology (2013-2015 secretary function)
2017-ongoing: member of the board of the Austrotransplant (Austrian Society for Transplantation, Transfusion and Genetics)
2017-ongoing: member of the board of the Austrian Society of Immunology and Allergology (2018-2020 secretary function)

Local activities at the Medical University of Graz:

2019-2021: Reorganization of the Biobank of the Medical University of Graz (member of the core team)
2020-ongoing: Vice-Dean for Doctoral Studies of the Medical University of Graz

Graz, 25.12.2023